Scripture Reflections

+Fr. Bob Catlett, M.Div., Pastor

June 7, 2021 – Solemnity of the Most Holy Body and Blood of Christ (Corpus Christi): Today's three readings show the sealing of the first covenant and the Christian covenant by blood – a symbol of life – which binds God and his people together. Thus, today's liturgy reminds us that we belong to God. Can we better show this in our daily lives? (Exodus 24:3-8, Hebrews 9:11-15, Mark 14:12-16, 22-26)

June 13, 2021 – 11th Sunday in Ordinary Time: The readings today remind us of the partnership to which God calls us. The first reading and the Gospel show the Lord raising up abundant life from insignificant beginnings. But, in the second reading, St. Paul reminds us that, while the Lord does his part, we have to do ours: one will receive a recompense for what one has done personally. We must balance trust in God with personal effort. (Ezekiel 17:22-24, 2 Corinthians 5:6-10, Mark 4:26-34)

June 20, 2021 – 12th Sunday in Ordinary Time: The Lord, whom this Sunday's first reading and Gospel readings portray confining and calming the power of the sea, chose to lay down his life for everyone. St. Paul, in the second reading, emphasizes, "He indeed died for all, so that those who live might no longer live for themselves but for him." How Lord? Please teach us to do this! (Job 38:1, 8-11, 2 Corinthians 5:14-17, Mark 4:35-41)

June 28, 2021 – 13th Sunday in Ordinary Time: Today's readings celebrate life. Jesus raises a child from the dead and also cures a woman's chronic affliction. This reminds us how important quality of life is. St. Paul shows concern for quality of life as he takes up a collection for the poor. (Wisdom 1:13-15; 2:23-24, 2 Corinthians 8:7, 9, 13-15, Mark 5:21-43)

Along the way reflections

selected by +Fr Carl

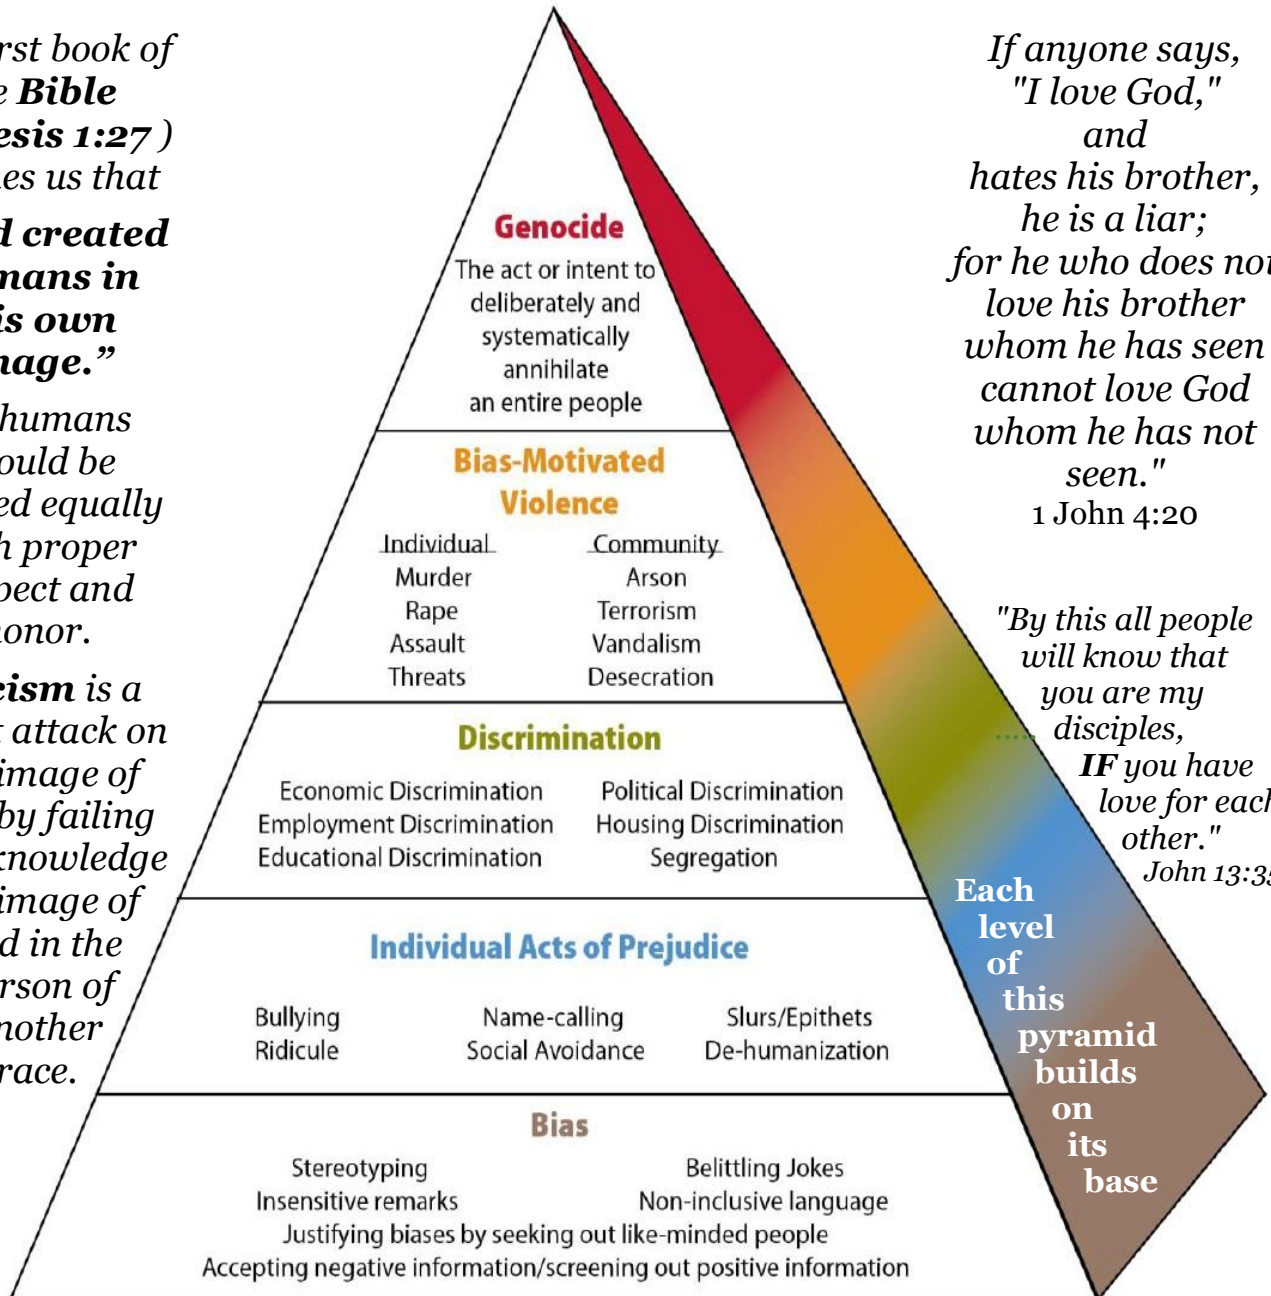

Let us ponder: what can I do in my life to help replace this pyramid of hate with a pyramid of love?

The first book of the Bible (Genesis 1:27) teaches us that “God created humans in His own image.”

All humans should be treated equally with proper respect and honor.

Racism is a direct attack on the image of God by failing to acknowledge the image of God in the person of another race.

If anyone says, "I love God," and hates his brother, he is a liar; for he who does not love his brother whom he has seen cannot love God whom he has not seen."
1 John 4:20

"By this all people will know that you are my disciples, IF you have love for each other."
John 13:35
